The Builder

NEWSLETTER OF THE UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH - FEBRUARY 1, 2023 VOL. 60 NO. 2

It seems that lately I have had reasons to write words of gratitude to all of you. While I spent Christmas in the hospital you all stepped up and things did not miss a beat in worship and the other things that needed to be done to make sure our ministry at UBC continued. Again, as I write this article for The Builder I find myself expressing words of thanks as I prepare to go into the hospital for surgery. Things are already underway to again make sure things go smoothly.

It is interesting that when things do not go as we hoped or planned we have a tendency to get frustrated and perhaps even upset. This was the case when my Christmas plans did not turn out as I had hoped or planned. But, that frustration lead to finding the problem that we will address with this trip to the hospital. It is always good to find out you have a problem early enough that things can be done more easily to get me healthy again and on with life. This is not the first time that usual things have happened at odd times and ways that have led to good things.

This is like the way things happen in our lives on a daily basis. You can call it a God thing or just an unusual thing that happens in life. I have decided that often God is involved in moving our lives in directions that may be helpful to us even when at the time it may not seem so to us be anything close to being helpful and certainly did not lead us to do or be something we had anticipated.

We are now in the time of Epiphany, a time of the year we look closely at God's revelation of God's self. And it might be a good time for all of us to be open to God's revelation in our own lives and be willing to be lead by that revelation and the movement of God's Spirit to see what God might have in store for each of us in the early days of this new year.
