NEWSLETTER OF THE UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH - OCTOBER 1, 2023 VOL. 60 NO. 10

Church attendance across the country, indeed around the world, has fallen on tough times. Not only the church but also many different civic and service organizations. There are many different reasons given for this but that does not change the facts.

When I think about congregations I am familiar with I see in my mind all the people I know who sit in the pews of those churches. They are all there for the same reason that the early church came into existence and grew. You will remember second chapter of Acts reminds us how it all began. Peter, the one who had denied Jesus, was standing with the rest of the eleven on the day of Pentecost stood up to preach a sermon which included a summary of the life death and resurrection of Jesus but reminded his hearers that they were the ones who had done this. When they heard this they asked Peter what they should do and he told them they should repent and be baptized. About 3000, Acts says, did this and they then devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship and to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Not only that but they spent much time in the temple, they would sell their possessions so they could give to the poor, they gathered together in their homes and had potluck meals and were happy together.

If you notice, one of the things that happen often is that we have potluck meals here at UBC. We break bread together and look out for the welfare of each other. This is one of the reasons that when people hear the good news of the love of God and see us caring for each other they like to be a part of who we are. Are they coming in great numbers? No. But slowly they come and the Church becomes the group of people that is more than a member of civic groups and service organizations, but a group of people who have others attracted to the group because of the good news of the gospel and the love of God's people for each other. We who are the baptized have as our job the task of making of other people disciples of Jesus Christ. So may it be.
