NEWSLETTER OF THE UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH - SEPTEMBER 1, 2024 VOL. 61, NO. 9

I ran across an interesting little article yesterday. I have no idea who wrote it nor who the people were he hoped would read it. Although it has more to do with young and busy parents it gives us all something to think about because has much to do with discipleship for all of us.

It asks about priorities in our lives in the real world of our home. Will priorities be established in your children when...

You are early for their ballgame, but late for worship?

You check on their homework regularly, but never check on their Sunday School lessons?

You won't let them miss school even though they don't want to go, but let them miss church worship services?

You won't let them stay up late on school nights but let them stay up late on Saturday night.

You will serve as room mother at their school or volunteer at school, but will not help with classes, activities, programs which involve spiritual matters?

You attend open house at their school, but do not visit their class room at Sunday School, or even know where their class meets?

You support, attend, or even participate in their sports activities (baseball, softball, basketball, volleyball, etc.) but regularly miss activities involving the church?

You never (almost never) miss meeting with the civic or social club of which you are a member, but frequently miss worship services?

You go to work even though you do not feel like it, but stay home on Sunday in the same condition?

After reading that I thought about evangelism. The way we set our priorities has a lot to say about how we evangelize our neighbors. They know, by what we do in regard to our church and spiritual activities, how important we think those things are. What kind of an evangelist are you?

Pastor John
