Spirit of Christmas Project

It's that time of year again...A time to give thanks for all we have been given. And a time to share with others.

14 Faith Communities join together to provide "Christmas" to clients and residents of 15 local agencies.

We are again collecting money to support this event. The money collected will be distributed among these agencies and staff will provide Christmas to their clients and residents.

Thank you for your continued support. Pledge cards are available outside the sanctuary. Donations are due by Sunday, November 10th. If you have any questions, contact the church office.

Chili Dinner at UBC

Sunday November 3rd following worship

Help us celebrate the 103rd Birthday of Ms. Marjune Corzine

Sign up sheet on the bulletin board.

NEWSLETTER OF THE UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH - OCTOBER 1, 2024 VOL. 61 NO. 11

Soon after you read this we will be coming together to share the Lord's Supper on a date which Christians have called World Communion Sunday. We will be doing what thousands of churches and millions of Christians all over the globe will be doing as a sign of an effort to be aware of the Christ who prayed that we all might be One even as the Son and the Father are one.

I have come to appreciate the effort to show that we share the sacrament of remembrance that reminds us that there is much more that unites us than divides us.

Much more Unites Us as Human Beings. In the Lord's Supper, we share in the physical presence of God in the world—and reminded that the "word made flesh" took on human form! All human beings are made in the very image of God. There are no differences among us—no differences of faith or location or nationality or race or culture or creed—that are greater than the unity we find in our common Creator and our common likeness to God.

It's easy to focus on the things that divide us: Theological differences expressed across denominations. Cultural differences expressed across continents. Language barriers. Some Christians, like in the United States, exert a dominant influence in their culture. Others forge their faiths as persecuted minorities. Many, as in post-Christian Europe, practice their faith in a sea of shoulder-shrugging indifference.

But all Christians everywhere celebrate communion. All Christians in every setting profess Jesus as Lord and Savior. This Sunday, as we participate in the shared practice of communion, we remember that.

The closer we get to home, the easier it is to find fault with our neighbor. It isn't always easy to be a faithful Christian in America today, and the largest challenge to our faith comes from within. No secular agenda or threat from a competing faith does nearly as much to threaten Christianity in America as do the divisions we sow among ourselves.

Christ's instruction at the table, "Do this in remembrance of me," means something. How often do we forget Christ in our disagreements?

How small, though, do those differences become when we eat the bread and share the cup together? The Lord's Supper reminds us that we are one in mission and purpose; one in our need for forgiveness and redemption; and one in the gift and blessing of salvation.

I hope you will plan to join us October 6 to celebrate the Lord's Supper.
